MCCLOY DISCUSSED WORK OF WARREN'S COMMISSION

27 Jan 64 1010

Routine

Msg. Nr. 28

For

44 USC 2107(5)(g)(2)(D)(i)

During our talks, McCLOY, on his own initiative, brought up the subject of criticism of the European press, especially the French, of the activity of WARREN's commission.

In a lengthy monologue he condemned accusations that the commission intends, in the name of public interest, to gloss over the evidence of the assassination and with its authority support the conclusions reached by the FBI.

He wants to assure us that he will not permit any distortion or concealment of the facts; however, from materials at his disposal, he is more and more convinced that OSWALD committed the crime by himself. I acknowledged his information with the statement that interest in the commission's report is great everywhere because of the shock of KENNEDY's assassination and of the world position of the USA.

McCLOY's statements confirm the opinion circulating here that the commission is mainly interested in proving that the assassination was not linked with any foreign centers. At the same time, public statements made
